Dear all:

RE: Case No.17-03283 (LTS), Claim No. 6899

The present communication answer the letter send by AAFAF on March , 2022 to:

- (1) Mirta Julia Rivera.
- (2) Tel. (787) 432-1288
- (3) Employee no. [have not been provided by employer]
- (4) Family Department, ADFAN
- (5) email: mirtalina363@gmail.com
- (6) Claimant is a plaintiff in the litigation caption Madeline Acevedo Camacho et als v, Family Dept. et als before the Commonwealth Appeal Board ,( CASP-CASE No.2016-05-1340 (Master claim no. 32044)
- (7) Description and nature of the claim and background:

Mrs. Julia Rivera back pay claim arise in the ordinary course of business and is based on the illegal implementation of the federal minimum wage by the Family Department and related Administrations. Originally, the case was filed as a Declaratory Judgment proceeding, at the PR Court of First instance, case no. K AC 2007- 0214, but after years of litigation, was referred to the Administrative forum (CASP).

Among others, the plaintiffs claim is based in the final judgements entered in the cases of Carmen Socorro Cruz Hernández v Family Department et als, case no. K AC 1991- 0665 and Juan Perez Colon et als v DTOP case no, K AC no. 1990-0487 were was determined that the Defendants, in clear disregard of the dispositions established in the Uniform Retribution Law of 1979 and regulations, illegally made the government pay scales and classification plans inoperable, by adopting the General Memorandum 5-86 to implement the federal minimum wage.

Also, the CFI determined that because as result of the illegal method of wage adjustment, defendants paid the same salary of laborers and janitors, to employees assigned up to pay scale 17, and thus, defendants obtained an unjust enrichment. Consequently, the judgment entered in the cases above identified, order defendants to adopt new pay scales that comply with the minimum wage and retribute the illegal portion of the regular salaries withheld to the plaintiff's.

Consequently, in the Acevedo Camacho case, the claimants alleges , that the debtors incurred in a pattern and practice of wage laws violations, since every time a new increase of the federal minimum wage come to effect, the agency make the same illegal wage adjustments. To the extreme, that said practice continues to this date, since defendants, have arbitrarily failed to adopt a new pay scale to comply with the actual minimum wage of 7.25 per hr.

Because is undisputed that Mrs. Julia Rivera and the others Acevedo Camacho plaintiff's are similarly situated as the other employees, in the above mentioned cases, that successfully questioned the illegal wage adjustments, since were deprived of a portion of the employees regular monthly salary, in violation of the applicable labor legislation., in the complaint is requested an order directing the Family Department and Administrations, to correct group plaintiff's regular rate of pay, pursuant to the Supreme court judgment in Santiago Declet v Family Department, 153 DPR 208 (2001) and Rivera Padilla v OAT , 189 DPR 315.

This because, according to Santiago Declet and Rivera Padilla doctrine, the Defendant has to correct the similar situated employee's wages, to comply with the constitutional mandate of equal pay for equal work standard.

II. For the documents pertinent to Mrs. Julia Rivera claim, please see Master Claim no. 32044 that includes, among other documents, copy of the complaint; the stipulation of the undisputed relevant facts and documents pertinent to the controversy, entered by the parties in case K AC 2007-0214; The judgement entered in the case of Carmen Socorro Cruz Hernandez et als v Family Department, case K AC 1991-0665 and which includes the new pay scales adopted by defendants on February 2005, to comply of the Commonwealth and federal minimum wage laws.

III. Here is also important to bring to the consideration of AAFAF, that in the case of Madeline Acevedo Camacho are accumulated 2,819 claimants that have in common the same questions of facts and law. Therefore, we propose, in order to archive a fair, economical and efficient adjudication of the controversy, to process the individual claims, as a class or group action, since is superior to individual method being actually used.

Also, is important to bring to your consideration that because of the extensive litigation history of the Acevedo Camacho case, defendants performed a comprehensive audit of the claimant's wage records, in order to determine the Commonwealth salary payment liability, and which studies or reports are jointly kept and saved, by the Family Department, ARV and AIJ, in their respective software programs. Therefore, we are including a partial copy of the audit, for your information, since as a practical matter, can provide the parties an adequate base to negotiate a reasonable settlement.

For any other information or need to meet with us to discuss a possible settlement of Mrs, Julia Rivera claim, please do not hesitate to call.

- (8) Description and nature of the claim and background

Mrs. Acevedo Cortes is accumulated as plaintiff in the case of Beltrán-Cintrón, Francisco et als (4,593 Plaintiffs).v Family Dept. et als, CASP case no. 2021-05-0345.

The group claim is based on the illegal implementation of the federal minimum wage by the Family Department and related Administrations. Originally, the case of Francisco Beltran was filed as a Declaratory Judgment proceeding, at the PR Court of First instance, case no. K AC 2009- 0809, but after years of litigation, was referred to the Administrative forum (CASP).

Among others, the plaintiff's claim that they are similarly situated and therefore, base their claim in the final judgements entered in the cases of Carmen Socorro Cruz Hernández v Family Department et als, case no. K AC 1991- 0665 and Juan Perez Colon et als v DTOP case no, K AC no. 1990-0487 were was determined that the Defendants, in clear disregard of the dispositions established in the Uniform Retribution Law of 1979 and regulations, illegally made the government pay scales and classification plans inoperable, by adopting the General Memorandum 5-86 to implement the federal minimum wage.

As result of the illegal method of wage adjustment, defendants paid the same salary of laborers and janitors, to employees assigned up to pay scale 17, and obtained an unjust enrichment. Consequently, the judgments entered in the cases above identified, order defendants to adopt new pay scales that comply with the minimum wage and retribute the illegal portion of the regular salaries unpaid to the plaintiff's. The unpaid wages, collectively are estimated in the amount of $105,000,000.00 million. Mrs. Acevedo claim is estimated in $70,000.00

Consequently, and being undisputed that Mrs. Acevedo Cortes and the others Beltran Cintron plaintiff's are similarly situated as the other employees, in the above mentioned cases and that successfully questioned the illegal wage adjustments, since were deprived of a portion of the employees regular monthly salary, in violation of the applicable labor legislation, in the complaint, the group claimants requested an order directing the Family Department and Administrations, to correct their regular rate of pay, pursuant to the Supreme court judgment in Santiago Declet v Family Department, 153 DPR 208 (2001) and Rivera Padilla v OAT , 189 DPR 315.

This, because according to Santiago Declet and Rivera Padilla doctrine, the Defendant has to correct the similar situated employee's wages, to comply with the constitutional mandate of equal pay for equal work standard.

In addition, the claimants avers that in the present case, the debtors incurred in a pattern and practice of wage laws violations, since every time a new increase of the federal minimum wage come to effect, the agency make the same illegal wage adjustments. To the extreme, that said practice continues to this date, since defendants, have arbitrarily failed to adopt a new pay scale to comply with the actual minimum wage of 7.25 per hr.

II. For the documents pertinent to Mrs. Acevedo Cortes claim, please see Master Claim no. 179140 that includes, among other documents, copy of the complaint; the stipulation of the undisputed relevant facts and documents pertinent to the controversy, entered by the parties in case K AC 2009-0809; The judgement entered in the case of Carmen Socorro Cruz Hernandez et als v Family Department, case K AC 1991-0665 and which includes the new pay scales adopted by defendants on February 2005, to comply of the Commonwealth and federal minimum wage laws.

III. By the other hand, is important to bring to your consideration, that since in the case of Francisco Beltran are accumulated 4,593 claimants that have in common the same questions of facts and law, in order to facilitate the implementation of a fair, economical and efficient resolution of the mentioned group claim, and avoid "extensive and repetitive request for information and documents concerning individual claims, filed by the individual claimant with insufficient information, we propose to process the Beltran Cintron group claims, though the ACR procedure, and as a class or group action, since is superior to individual method, being utilized by your office.

This because by this method, not only will facilitate to identify duplicative claims, as is in the case of Mrs. Acevedo-Cortes, but because all the claims have the same supporting documents, will also facilitate the case management, since will eliminate the burden of requesting the individual claimants the same supporting documents and obtain a more effective and economic disposition and settlement of the respective claims.

The list of all claimants included in the Beltran Cintron Group claim, contact information, and supporting documents , as stated, is provided in claim No. 179140

In addition, because due to the extensive litigation history of the instance case, defendants including the ARV, has performed audits of the claimant's wage records, in order to determine the Commonwealth back pay responsibility, and which studies or reports are kept and saved, by the Family Department, ARV and AIJ, in their respective software programs. This audits, as a practical matter, can provide the parties an adequate base, to negotiate a reasonable settlement.

Please let me know, if the FOMB agree to make changes in the claim resolution process, as above proposed. Also, if you need any other information or meet with us to discuss a possible settlement of Mrs. Acevedo claim, please do not hesitate to call.

Best regards,

Ivonne Gonzales-Morales Esq.

- (8) Description and nature of the claim and background

Mrs. Kariam Vazquez Reyes is accumulated as plaintiff, in the case of Beltrán-Cintrón, Francisco et als (4,593 Plaintiffs).v Family Dept. et als, CASP case no. 2021-05-0345.

The group claim is based on the illegal implementation of the federal minimum wage by the Family Department and related Administrations. Originally, the case of Francisco Beltran was filed as a Declaratory Judgment proceeding, at the PR Court of First instance, case no. K AC 2009- 0809, but after years of litigation, was referred to the Administrative forum (CASP).

Specifically, the plaintiffs claim is based in the final judgements entered in the cases of Carmen Socorro Cruz Hernández v Family Department et als, case no. K AC 1991- 0665 and Juan Perez Colon et als v DTOP case no, K AC no. 1990-0487 where it was determined that the Defendants, in clear disregard of the dispositions established in the Uniform Retribution Law of 1979 and regulations, illegally made the government pay scales and classification plans inoperable, by adopting the General Memorandum 5-86 to implement the federal minimum wage.

Also, because it was determined that, as result of the illegal method of wage adjustment, defendants paid the same salary of laborers and janitors, to employees assigned up to pay scale 17, and obtained an unjust enrichment. Consequently, the judgment order defendants to adopt new pay scales to restitute the illegal portion of the regular salaries withheld.

Therefore, and being the undisputed fact that Mrs. Vazquez Reyes and the others Beltran Cintron plaintiffs are similarly situated as the other employees, that successfully questions the illegal wage adjustments, in the above mentioned cases, since were also deprived illegally of a portion of the employees regular monthly salary, in violation of the applicable labor legislation, in the complaint is requested an order directing the Family Department and its Administrations, to correct group plaintiff's regular rate of pay, pursuant to the Supreme court judgment in Santiago Declet v Family Department, 153 DPR 208 (2001) and Rivera Padilla v OAT, 189 DPR 315.

This because, according to Santiago Declet and Rivera Padilla doctrine, Debtor has to correct the similar situated employee's wages, to comply with the constitutional mandate of equal pay for equal work standard.

Also, because here has to be taken into consideration, that the debtors has incurred in a pattern and practice of wage laws violations, since every time a new increase of the federal minimum wage comes to effect, makes the same illegal wage adjustments. To the extreme, that said practice continues to this date, since defendants, have not approved new pay scale to comply with the actual minimum wage of 7.25 per hr.

II. For the documents pertinent to Mrs. Kariam Vazquez Reyes claim, please see Master Claim no. 179140 which includes, among other documents. copy of the complaint; the stipulation of the undisputed relevant facts and documents pertinent to the controversy, entered by the parties in case K AC 2009-0809; The judgement entered in the case of Carmen Socorro Cruz Hernandez et als v Family Department, case K AC 1991-0665 and which also includes the new pay scales adopted by defendants on February 2005, to comply of the Commonwealth and federal minimum wage laws.

In this regards, is important to bring again to your consideration, that based in the fact that in the case of Francisco Beltran are accumulated more than 4.500 claimants, that have in common the same questions of facts and law, for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy, we propose to process the case as a class or group action since is superior to individual method, and more economic and cost effective.

In addition, because due to the extensive litigation history of the instance case, defendants performed audits of the claimant's wage records, in order to determine the Commonwealth salary payment responsibility, and which studies or reports are kept and saved, by the Family Department, ARV and AIJ, in their respective software programs. This can provide the Commonwealth a just perspective to negotiate a reasonable settlement.

If additional information is needed, or to meet with us, please do not hesitate to call.

Regards,

Ivonne González Morales Esq.
